TIMANUS

The following notes on the Timanus family have been collected for some years, and are believed to be reasonably accurate. Time and opportunity have been limited so that they give only a partial story and do not represent anywhere near a complete genealogy. It is hoped, however, the information will be of interest to many who are connected with, or are descendants of, this illustrious family.

The initials JHRT, as a reference, are for Mr. J. H. R. Timanus of Philadelphia, Penna. Mr. Timanus has also been making a similar collection and is given as the source for information he furnished which has not been checked by the writer.

Other abbreviations are those used by the Genealogical Society of New Jersey (GMNJ 24:57).

The article on the Timanus Family, which appeared in the Baltimore Sun on Sunday, March 5, 1905, is of considerable interest, but the information contained therein should be used with caution.

- 1 JOHAN JACOB TIMANUS, b. ca 1712, d. Oct. 28, 1783, aged 71 yrs., m. Aug. 20, 1741, in the First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa., Rosanna Wotherson, b. ca 1723, d. Nov. 14, 1800, aged 77 yrs.

"Jacob Temanus" is buried in the churchyard of the Upper Dublin Evan. Lutheran Church in Upper Dublin Township, Montgomery County, located at the corner of Butler Pike and Susquehanna Road, just north of Ambler, Penna. "Rosanna Wife of Jacob Timanus" is buried beside her husband.

Johan Jacob Timanus came to America in 1732, probably from the Palatinate. He sailed on the ship Pleasant, J. Morris, Master, from Rotterdam to Philadelphia (Rupp's Thirty Thousand Names of Immigrants).

As Johanna Jacob Timmaner, aged 20, be qualified for the Oath of Allegiance, Oct. 11, 1732 (Egle's Names of Foreigners who took the Oath of Allegiance - 1727-1775, p. 71).

Jacob Timanus eventually settled in Upper Dublin Township, then part of Philadelphia, now in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. He was probably one of the original members of the congregation of the Lutheran Church in Upper Dublin, which was often referred to then as "Puff's Church", and in 1757-58, together with Valentine Puff and George Klippenor, made a "Declaration of Trust" donating to the "Dutch Lutheran Church sixty perches of land" (a).

Jacob Timanus of Upper Dublin Township, Philadelphia County, signed his mark to his will dated Oct. 28, 1783, proved Nov. 22, 1783, on file in Philadelphia Recorder of Wills, and named his wife Rosanna and five children Jacob, Elizabeth, Conrad, Henry and Catharine. His estate included about 120 acres of land.

Rosanna Timanus of Upper Dublin in her will dated Jany. 27, 1800, proved Dec. 23, 1800, named her son Conrad and daughter Catharine. This is from record of Abstracts of Wills for Montgomery County, Pa., in the Gene Soc. of Penna.

CHILDREN

- + 2 Jacob, b. 174-, d. 1798, m. prior to Sept. 1781 Dorathy Shearmiller, b. ca 1758, d. July 22, 1826 in her 68th yr.
- + 3 Conrad, b. Jany. 11, 1747, d. after 1800, m. ---.
- 4 Elizabeth, b. Apr. 4, 1750 (JHRT), d. --, m. --- Vernor (or Verner) (JHRT).
- 5 poss. John (JHRT).

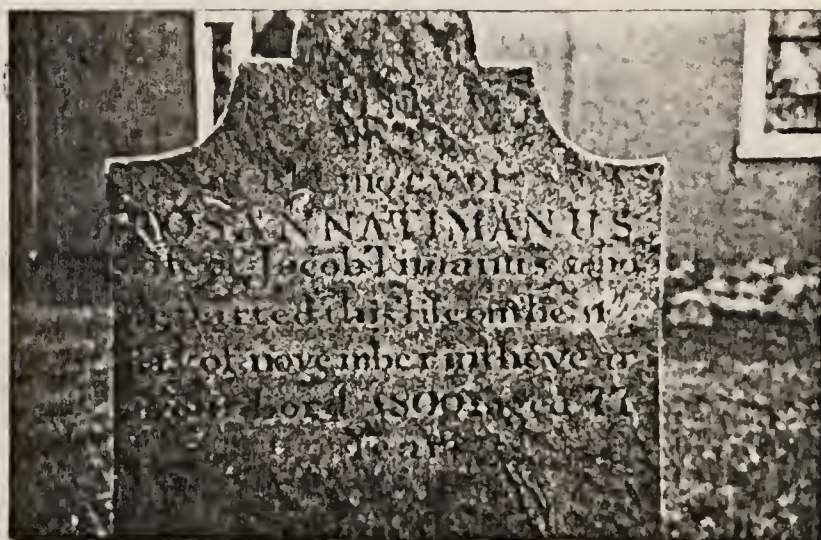

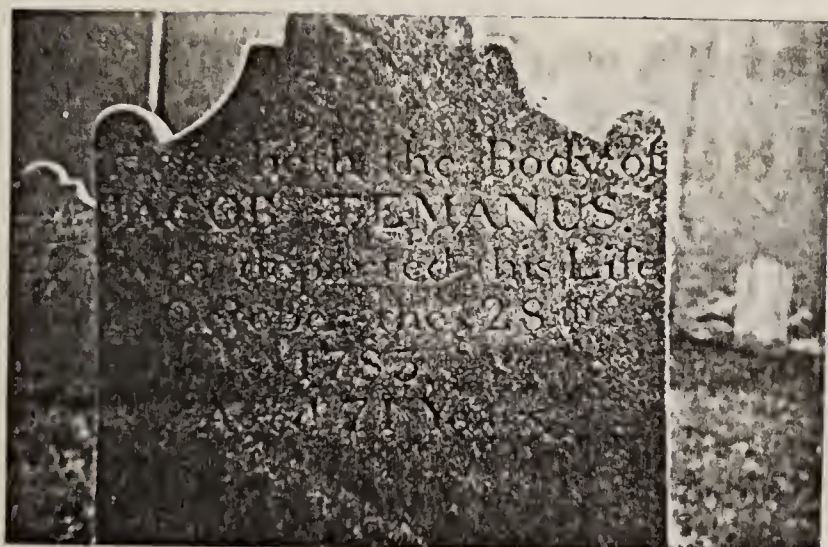

- (a) The original document now repaired is in the possession of the Trustees of the church, and a framed copy, presented by Mr. J. H. R. Timanus, hangs in the vestibule.

6 Catharine, b. --, d. --.

According to J.H.R. Timanus, Catharine married --- Logue and had a son, John T. Logue b. 1808, d. 1878.

In the Upper Dublin Evan. Lutheran churchyard is a gravestone, adjoining the other Timanus markers, for John Timanus, son of Catharine Timanus, who died Sept. 20, 1799, aged 16y, 2m, 6d. If this is the same Catharine, it would possibly indicate she had a child born out of wedlock, and that she married after his death.

+ 7 Henry, b. Sept. 19, 1761, d. Dec. 8, 1799, aged 38 yrs., m. ---.

- 2 JACOB TIMANUS, son of Johan Jacob Timanus, b. 174-, d. 1798, m. prior to Sept. 1781, Dorathy Shearmiller, daughter of Godlip and Dorathy Shearmiller (a), b. ca 1758, d. July 22, 1826 in the 68th year of her age.

Jacob Timanus and his wife are buried in the Mt. Olive Cemetery, adjoining the Mt. Olive Methodist Church, Randallstown, Maryland. His stone is a rough marker engraved J T 1798, and adjoins the gravestone of his widow.

He moved from Philadelphia to Baltimore County, Maryland, near Mt. Olive (Randallstown) where he is said to have been a planter raising tobacco in large quantities, which was packed in hogsheads and rolled along Rolling Road for shipment at Elkridge Landing.

He died intestate and administration of his estate was given to Dorathy Timanus, Dec. 15, 1798 (Baltimore Probate Record, Libre 2, p. 285).

CHILDREN (order uncertain)

 - + 9 George, b. prob. ca 1781, d. --, m. 1st Lydia Weave-, b. ca 1786, d. 1803 in her 17th yr.; poss. m. 2nd Margery (?) Wiggins.
 - 10 prob. A child, b. prob. ca 1783, d. 1784. A crude gravestone marked C.T. 1784, adjoins and is similar to the one for Jacob Timanus.
 - + 11 Jacob, b. ca 1784, d. Oct. 28, 1854 in his 70th yr., m. 1st Jane McCulloh, b. ca 1783, d. Mar. 13, 1823, aged 40 yrs.; m. 2nd Margaret Mansfield, b. 1801, d. Feb. 1868.
 - 12 Mary, b. --, d. --, m. John W. Ford, b. --, d. --.
- Moved west about 1835. Had issue.
- 13 Elizabeth, b. --, d. --, m. --- Heist.
 - 14 Jesse, b. --, d. --, (?) m. ---.

He is said to have been a private in the War of 1812.

A Ruth Baker Timanus, widow, granddaughter of Nicholas Baker is mentioned in a deed, dated Aug. 31, 1838 (Baltimore Land Book TK 282, p. 71). Possibly she was wife of Jesse.

- (a) Godlip Shearmiller of Baltimore County, "Bucher", in his will dated Sept. 3, 1781, proved Oct. 11, 1781, mentions his wife and names his daughters Catreana, Magdalen, Sophia Henry and Dorothea Timanes. Administration of the estate was given to Dorathy Shearmiller. (Baltimore, Md., Probate Record, Libre 3, p.427).

- + 15 John, b. ca 1792, d. July 29, 1826 in his 34th yr., m. Eliza Wall, b, ca 1793, d. Aug. 21, 1876 in her 83rd yr.
- + 16 Henry, b. prob. 179-, d. --, m. Mary Capito.

- 22 Sophia, b. --, d. --, m. ---.

- 7 HENRY TIMANUS, son of Johan Jacob Timanus and Rosanna Wotherson, b. Sept. 19, 1761 (JHRT), d. Dec. 8, 1799, aged 38 yrs., buried in the Upper Dublin Evan. Luth. Churchyard, m. ---.

Henry Timanus died intestate and according to will records of Montgomery County, Pa. in the Gene. Soc. of Penna., Samuel Mann was appointed administrator of the estate Dec. 23, 1799.

CHILDREN

- + 23 Solomon, b. 1778, d. 1823, m. ---.
- 24 Martha, b. --, d. prior to 1852, m. --- Robinson.

Children

- a. Henry H. Robinson, b. --, d. --.
- b. Joshua M. Robinson, b. --, d. --.
- 25 Hannah, b. --, d. prior to 1852, m. --- Trenchard.

Daughter

Julia Trenchard, b. --, d. --.

- 26 Harriet, b. --, d. prior to 1852, m. --- Stewart.

Son

William Henry Stewart, b. --, d. --.

- 27 Henry J., b. prob. 179-, d. Dec. 15, 1851 in N. Y. City, m. Rebecca ---, b. --, d. prior to Sept. 1852.

Henry Timanus was an Ensign in Capt. Smith's 51st Regiment, Maryland Militia, and helped defend North Point and Fort McHenry, Sept. 12 & 13, 1814. (Muster Rolls in the office of the 3rd Auditor of the Treasury of the U.S.; Wm H. Marine's The British Invasion of Maryland, Appendix by L. H. Dielman).

On Nov. 10, 1845 Henry J. Timanus was appointed administrator of the estate of Warren Timanus, deceased (N. Y. Surrogate record), poss. a son.

Henry J. Timanus, living at 122 Walker St. near Canal St., New York City, in his will dated Dec. 11, 1851 and proved Feb. 17, 1852 left his estate to his wife, Rebecca, including bounty land obtained under Act of Congress, Sept. 28, 1850. He apparently left no children. His executrix was Henry H. Robinson (NYCW 103:324).

From N. Y. Surrogate records, "Proceedings to Probate Wills of Real Estate", Liber 14, p. 41-45, other heirs at law besides the wife Rebecca were:

Henry H. Robinson of N. Y. City and Joshua M. Robinson of Williamsburgh, Kings County, N. Y., children of Martha M. Robinson a deceased sister of the testator.

Julia Trenchard, infant, of N. Y. City, daughter of Hannah Trenchard a deceased sister of the testator.

Henry Timanus of Bethel, Conn., and George Timanus residing in the British Province of Canada, both of full age, being children of Solomon Timanus a deceased brother of the testator.

William Henry Stewart, only child of Harriet Stewart a deceased sister of the testator. He is of full age but his residence is unknown.

On Sept. 9, 1852 James S. Thayer was appointed administrator of the estate of Rebecca Timanus, deceased (N. Y. Surrogate record).

- 8 CHARLES TIMANUS, son of Jacob Timanus and Dorathy Shearmiller, b. prob. ca 1779, d. Oct. 6, 1843, m. Feb. 8, 1801 (Maryland Hist. Soc. mss. "Maryland Marriages 1777-1804, p. 137), Jane Lester, daughter of William and Mary Lester (a), b. --, d. ca Jany. 1852.

Where Charles Timanus or his wife are buried is unknown. In the Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Baltimore, is an old large vault marked "Charles Timanus, Sr. 1851". The Superintendent of the Cemetery, Apr. 1950, stated there is nothing now in the vault. The cemetery burial records from its beginning in 1847 thru 1860 show no interments for anyone bearing the name Timanus.

Charles Timanus was commissioned Nov. 3, 1812 as Captain in the 36th Regiment, Maryland, 11th Brigade (Wm H. Marine's The British Invasion of Maryland, Appendix by L. H. Dielman). The National Archives reported, June 29, 1950; "A search of the War of 1812 pension and bounty - land records in the National Archives fails to disclose a file for Charles Timanus".

He is stated to have lived at "Chestnut Grove" on the Frederick Rd. near Baltimore. Very little seems to be definitely known about him but he was apparently a large owner of real estate.

Charles Timanus died intestate and Charles Timanus, Jr. was appointed administrator Oct. 14, 1843. (Baltimore Probate Record - Libre 11, p. 289).

A deed, Mar. 27, 1844, by Henry Timanus of Newton Co., Georgia, to Charles Timanus of Howard Dist. Anne Arundel Co., Md., refers to Charles Timanus, Sr. late of Baltimore Co., who died intestate on or about Oct. 6, 1843, and to his property at "Wells Manor" purchased in 1807, etc. to which Henry Timanus was entitled to 1/8th part and in which Jane Timanus widow of Charles Timanus, Sr. had a dower right (Baltimore Land Book TK 340, p. 64).

In another deed, Aug. 11, 1845, to Charles Timanus of Howard District, by the following for the same property as noted in the deed above, each of whom had an eighth interest in the property of their father Charles Timanus, Sr.

William Timanus & wife Harriet of Crawford Co., Ohio.
Jeremiah Nace & wife Jane of Dayton Township, Montgomery Co., Ohio.
Jesse Timanus & wife Jane of Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio.
Rebecca Timanus
of Rapahannock Co., Vir.
Dorathy Mackinson
of Baltimore Co., Md.

(Baltimore Land Book AWB 362, p. 308)

- (a) William Lester of Frederick Town, Turnpike Road, about two miles from Baltimore, in his will dated Dec. 13, 1808, proved Sept. 28, 1811, names his wife Mary, son Thomas, daughter Priscilla Dickinson and her children, daughter Jane Timanous and her children, and youngest son Shipley (Baltimore Probate Record, Libre 9, p. 172).

Jane Timanus of Baltimore Co. wrote two wills, one dated Sept. 1847 and the other -- 31, 1851. They were both proved Jany. 28, 1852, saying she was of Baltimore City. The first will refers to clothes and house household furniture, mentions two daughters and names daughter Rebeck and son Jacob. The second will mentions the first will and then refers to the house on Frederic Road and the interest of those named, sons William - 1/8th, Jacob - $1, Charles - 1/8th, Jessey - 1/8th, Henry - 1/8; daughters Dorith Fortune - $1, Jane Nace - 1/8th, Rebecca Timanus - 1/8; nephuses Daniel Mackinse and Charles Mackinse - 1/8th less $1; also names daughter-in-law, Mary Timanus (Baltimore Probate Record, Book 24, p. 490).

The Baltimore Sun's article of Sunday, Mar. 5, 1905, says George married a Miss Wiggins of Harford County. On Dec. 5, 1833 George Timanus and wife Margery signed a deed (Baltimore Land Book TK 235, p. 58 & 102).

On July 17, 1811 George Timanus of Baltimore County gave a mortgage for $60\frac{1}{2}$ acres of land in "Little Munster" (Ibid WG 114, p. 172).

George Timanus on Dec. 24, 1813 was commissioned Major of the 36th Regiment, Maryland, 11th Brigade (Wm H. Marine's The British Invasion of Maryland, Appendix by L. H. Dielman).

Henry Timanus removed from Baltimore to the South and in Mar. 1844 he was residing in Newton County, Ga. On May 3, 1847 he bought at a sheriff's sale 600 acres of land belonging to John Marsh and lying on Horse Creek, Edgefield Dist., So. Carolina adjoining land of John Wise, James Powell and others. (Edgefield Co., So. Carolina, Deed Book EEE, p. 217). On Dec. 31, 1852 he sold 526 acres of land on the west side of Horse Creek, etc. (Ibid, GGG, p. 617).

On Jany. 7, 1853 the legatees, given below, of the estate of the late Mrs. Sarah S. Marsh of Edgefield Dist. sold to Henry Timanus property, "(as his wife's portion of one half of said estate)", some negroes plus 200 acres bounded on west by Big Horse Creek in the vicinity of the town of Graniteville, (South Carolina), and by lands of the Graniteville Mfg. Co. and others; John Marsh, Trustee for Laura M. Ingraham, Frances E. Jones, William P. Jones, A. G. Rountree, L. M. Ingraham and Pickens B. Marsh. (Ibid, III, p. 53).

Henry Timanus lived in South Carolina when he was first married. About 1857 he moved to Fernandina, Florida and made this his home until his death. From the records in Deed Book "F" of Nassau Co., Florida, it is learned that in 1857 he made a number of 99 year leases for lots and other property located in the new town of Fernandina, Island of Amelia, all from the Trustees of the Florida Railroad Co. He also purchased property for his own account. He was apparently a man of means and is said to have owned many slaves.

He served in the Civil War on the Southern side. His descendants have always understood that he was a Colonel being so stated by his children and grandchildren. However, the following indicates otherwise. In a letter written Nov. 19, 1951 by Roumelle Bowen, Secretary, State Board of Pensions, Pension Department, Tallahassee, Florida, to Mrs. James D. Hobbs, 315 N. E. 22nd St., Miami, Florida, states that he is in receipt of the following letter:-

" DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL

Washington 25, D. C.
13 November 1951

Mr. Roumelle Bowen
Pension Department, State of Florida
Tallahassee, Florida.

 Reference is made to your letter of 29 October 1951, herewith returned.

- (a) Have been unable to discover any information about John Marsh, b. ca 1790, d. 1857, aged 67 yrs., or why he should have been termed "Colonel". Sarah Ann Glover, only child of Andrew and Dicey Glover, b. ca 1795, d. 1850, aged 55 yrs., m. 1st John Nail and had 3 children by him. Andrew Glover was a large land owner and wealthy man for his day. He lived on Big Horse Creek (Graniteville) South Carolina.

The records show that Henry Timanus, a Captain and Assistant Commissary of Subsistence, Confederate States Army, was appointed 19 May 1862, to take rank, 1 May 1864, he is mentioned as Captain and Assistant Commissary of Subsistence at Lake City, Florida.

He was surrendered by Brigadier General E. McCook, Confederate States Army and paroled at Tallahassee, Florida, 10 May, 1865.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Wm. E. Bergin
Major General, USA
The Adjutant General

In another letter written Feb. 10, 1906 at Jacksonville, Fla. by Wilkinson Call, Ass't. Adj't. Gen. C.S.A., Beauregards Dep't., in Gen'l. Finnegan's Division of the Army of Virginia, Army of Florida, to Mr. H.E. Bowden of Jacksonville, states:-

"I state at your request, as follows:-

I knew your grandfather, Major Henry Timanus, he served with me in the Confederate States Army as a Major Quartermaster in General Finnegan's Division of Beauregard's department in the Confederate Army.

He was an efficient and faithful and highly respected officer of the Confederate States Army. I knew him well, and gladly bear testimony to his high character and the respect in which he was held by the officers and men of the Army. He served through the entire war."

Whatever Henry Timanus' position may have been in the Confederate Army, the war left him with weakened finances and health, and as a result he lost most of his property and his eyesight. He died in 1872, intestate, leaving no personal property, some real estate and some debts. Carolina R.G. Timanus, his wife, was appointed admx. (Probate records of Nassau County, Fernandina, Florida).

As part of the probate records there is a memo listing the heirs to estate of Henry Timanus of Nassau County as follows:-

Sarah Jane Priscilla Poindexter, wife of Alfred Poindexter
Rebecca Josephine McDowell, wife of William O. McDowell
Carolina Virginia Smith, wife of Halsted Smith
Tallulah Pauline Bowden, wife of Martin Romulus Bowden
